

Peer Review - Quantitative Methods Final Assignment

Name of Reviewer: _____

Name of Author: _____

Topics	Score	Comments/Explanation
Introduction: The topic of education and academic success is clearly discussed as the theme of this research project. There is a brief discussion of the group you are planning to focus on in this resesarch report. Your selected group's importance to the topic at hand is made clear in a coherent thesis statement.	/10
Literature Review: The Darling-Hammond article is presented and gives appropriate context for the school system in America The Orr, Stone & Stumbo article is presented and gives adequate context for the particular challenges of education in Baltimore. The literature review provides relevant context to the selected group's role in education.	/10
The Wire There is a discussion of specific scenes in The Wire that are relevant to the selected group.	/10
Discussion There is a clear discussion of the literature review sources and their relationship to The Wire excerpts. There is an inclusion of two additional relevant sources that were taken from the wordpress site. The information collected in the Baltimore Statistics assignment are included in the analysis of your topic.	/10
Conclusion There is a concluding paragraph that shows that the thesis has been proved and that you have considered the complexities around your selected group's role.	/10	